Dedication

At home . . .

Because he has served Western Carolina College so tirelessly, so endlessly, as advisor of the annual and as a friend to the students, we, the Senior Class, are proud to dedicate the 1957 Catamount to Mr. Tyson A. Cathey.

Mr. Tyson, assistant professor of geography since 1944, is a native of Cherokee County and a graduate of Western Carolina College with a B.S. Degree in Education. He received his M.A. Degree in Geography from the University of North Carolina in 1948.

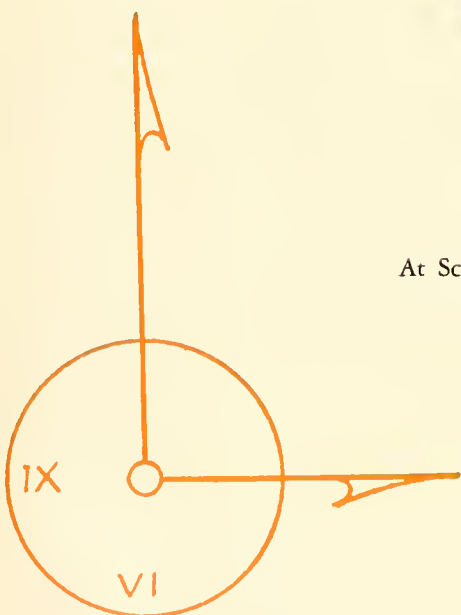

During his career as a public educator, Mr. Cathey has taught in Haywood County as both principal and teacher from 1934-1944. Here at W. C. C. he has served as assistant to the dean of men, member of the Homecoming committee, and advisor of the annual.

He is also a member of the Cullowhee Lions Club and of the Methodist Church Choir.

So, to Mr. Cathey, whose desire is always to be friendly and fair to his associates, we, the students, are happy to dedicate the 1957 annual, to our "helper," Mr. Tyson A. Cathey. We are glad to know him.

In Memoriam . . .

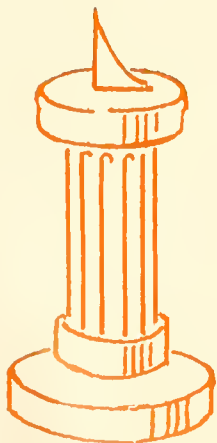

BILL HEIL

EDDIE RICH

Here rests his head upon the lap of Earth,
A Youth to Fortune and to Fame unknown.
Fair Science frowned not on his humble birth
And melancholy marked him for her own.

Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere,
Heav'n did a recompence as largely send;
He gave to misery all he had, a tear,
He gained from Heav'n ('twas all he wished) a friend.

No farther seek his merits to disclose,
On draw his frailties from their dread abode
(There they alike in trembling hope repose),
The bosom of his Father and his God.

IN MEMORIAM

MARVIN REID FARLEY

- A small, quick-moving man with flaming-red hair.
 - A genial smile; a broad Georgia drawl, and a never failing salutation.
 - An instructor: history punctuated with an ample supply of humorous stories and anecdotes.
 - A scholar devoted to work and study.
 - A man who loved the out-of-doors.
 - A friend with genuine understanding and concern.
- This was Marvin Farley,
A man we shall not forget.

MORNING

W. E. BIRD
President

President W. E. Bird has served Western Carolina College faithfully for thirty-seven years, first as instructor, department head and dean, and now as president. When he could have retired, the Board of Trustees asked him to remain in this position, a fitting climax to his long years of service.

President Bird's influence on this campus is re-told many times in many places, by alumni and others who have known him. His service to the college, community and, indeed, to all of Western North Carolina, has been and will always be an outstanding example of integrity and devotion.

W. B. HARRILL
Dean

W. B. Harrill, acting dean, is known all over North Carolina for the high quality of his work in education, as teacher and administrator in both the public schools and at the college level.

Students in his classes know his ready wit and his keen insight into problems of education. When they approach him in his capacity as dean, they find a sympathetic listener who gives himself fully to helping with their personal problems.

Serving now for the second time as acting dean, in addition to his duties as professor of education and director of public relations, Mr. Harrill works tirelessly to advance the cause of education. His friendly manner and understanding nature have won for him a host of friends during his ten years at Western Carolina College.

We, the Seniors at Western Carolina College, pause near the end of the long road which we have followed through four exciting years and from which we shall soon depart. We can see behind us those persons who are working steadily to reach our positions at the crossroads. We remember how far in the distance the goal appears to the freshmen. We, too, were frightened by registration, were shocked by the "inspection lines," were lost in the library, and were just a little homesick. We traveled that very road. We learned how to make a wonderful party from saltines, peanut butter, and spigot water coffee. We were confused by research papers and parts of the earthworm and beginning swimming.

Then suddenly we were Sophomores. We had found our places in campus life; and we could offer words of wisdom to the new freshmen. Majors and concentrations appeared in our schedules. We divided into departmental groups for many clubs. Ball games, lyceum programs, cokes in the College Shop, and bull sessions kept us closely knit as we marched steadily forward. We danced with starry eyes and tired feet to the music of Ralph Flannagan. We began to assume responsibility for planning campus activities.

The Junior year was the halfway mark in our journey. Our class began to show its strength in leadership. Many of our group were in the Pre-session Conference and helped solve campus problems. We helped establish the Student Union. When we were admitted to the teacher training program we wore dress clothes and became "Miss" or "Mr." to the children of the laboratory school. From our group came counselors for the freshmen, officers of the clubs, leaders on the campus, and scholars. Still we had midnight snacks of crackers and cheese, sat in the College Shop, yelled at ball games, heard concerts and lectures, and danced in layers of net with rosebuds and sparkles. Ours was a well-rounded year.

Now we are able to see the end of our journey through college. The title of "Senior" places much responsibility on us; and we find ourselves, although in familiar surroundings, with a strange new feeling. We see the condition of the world and we know that our duty is to improve and strengthen that world. We begin to evaluate what we have gained from our four years' journey. We find time to help those who walk behind us on the road and to remove from their path the unnecessary bumps.

Only a short distance remains before we reach the end—and the beginning of a new life. The remaining days will be filled with studying, dancing, student teaching, and participating in graduation events.

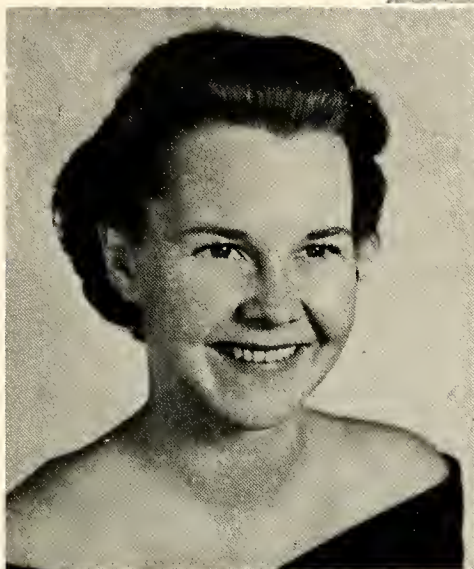

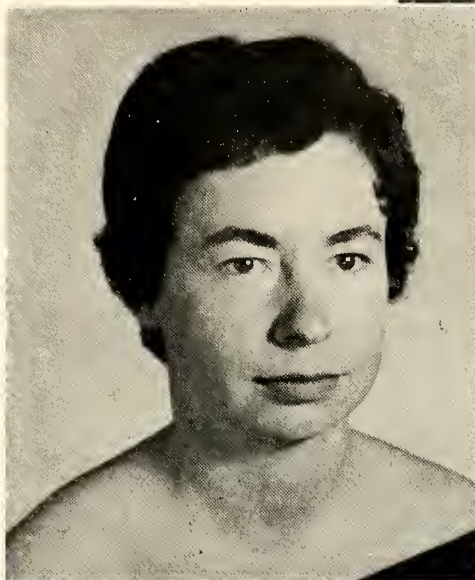

We have spent four years in discovery—discovery of ourselves and our talents, of knowledge and of faith. It is with sadness that we leave ivy-covered Joyner, the Post Office window, the chow lines, the eight o'clock classes, and all the life at Cullowhee. We step forward now to accept the challenge of adulthood and citizenship in the world of strife. We are sending from our class a record number of teachers to aid in training future leaders of America. Though the Senior Class will break into many pieces on graduation day, memories of college experiences will keep the members united in spirit forever.

JUNIOR CLASS

Here we are, three happy years gone, but the happiest and most triumphant yet to come. We have almost finished our general education and now we go into specialized courses which will prepare us for our life's work. We are looking forward to the happiest and most profitable year of our college careers.

We have the distinction of being the largest Junior Class in the history of the college. We have taken part in many activities and next year will be the culmination of this work. We've made a good record, so let's keep it up so that the class of '58 will be the best yet!

S O P H O M O R E S

We, the Sophomores, once green freshmen and now rising juniors, have passed the halfway mark in our college career. Our class has produced many leaders thus far, as well as being represented in all college organizations and activities.

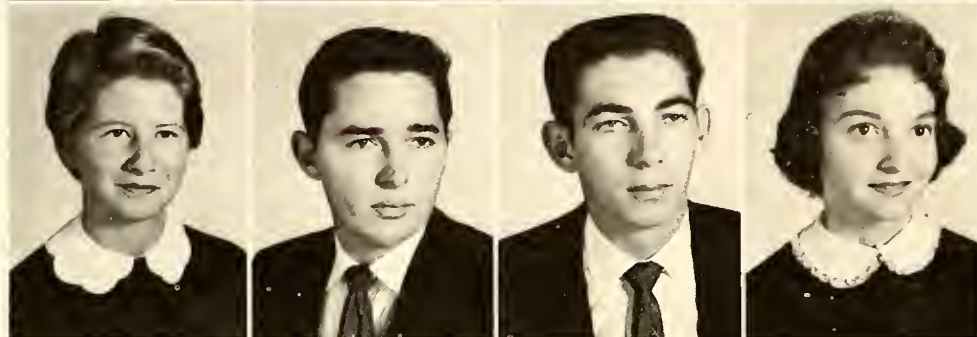

Those of you who are leaving us for various reasons will surely join with us next year at Homecoming. We, the remainder of the class, are looking forward to two more years of wonderful companionship and activities that Western Carolina, our stepping stone, has given us.

FRESHMEN

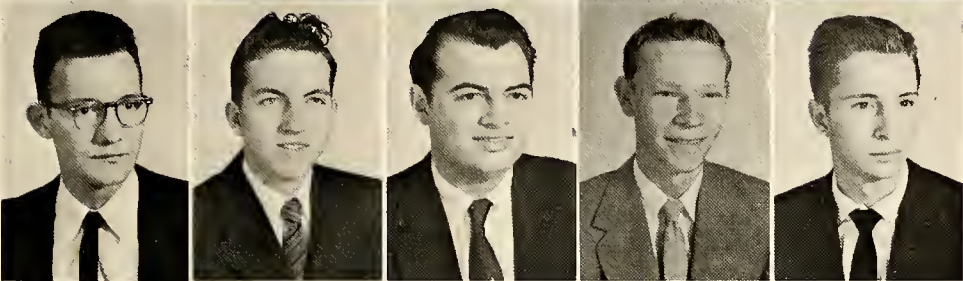

"Poor mixed-up Freshmen" was the name that we were tagged with during that first week of orientation. How well this name fit us! We had no idea what the upperclassmen meant when they talked about such things as the hump—cuts—majors—minors. And we felt that we deserved a medal for surviving registration day.

But pretty soon we began to fall in line with the upperclassmen. New friends, ball games, bull sessions, and dances showed us the brighter side of college life. We learned the value of class cuts, how to buck the chow lines, and the "art" of getting to class just as the whistle was blowing.

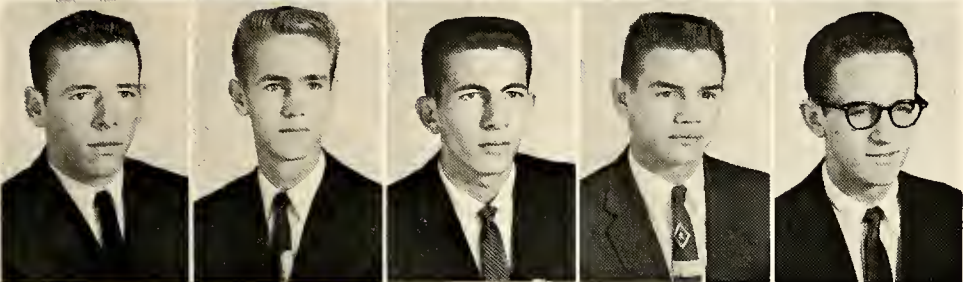

As Freshmen we realize that we have just begun our college life and have much more to learn. But we are looking forward to being the Sophomores of '58 at Western Carolina!

Crown Bearer — Robert

Train Bearers —

Beautiful girls, a beautiful day, and a beautiful setting make the May Day celebration at W.C.C. one of the outstanding events of the year. Activities of the day begin with the regal procession, followed by the crowning of the queen and the pageant presented in her honor. That night the Day Student Council sponsors the May Day Dance over which the queen and her court preside.

Members of the 1957 Central May Day Committee were Barbara Shaver, chairman; Fancy Funk, Phyllis Carswell, Ivan Joslin, Baxter Wood, Frank Plemmons, and Frank Allison. Faculty advisors were Miss Benton, Miss Hartshorn and Mr. Oliver.

Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges

One of the highest honors at Western Carolina College is being named to "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." This year the Who's Who Committee selected nine boys and nine girls for the position on the basis of activities, citizenship, leadership, scholarship, and promise of becoming future leaders of America.

A short biography of these students will be included in the national volume of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," an annual publication similar to, but entirely independent of "Who's Who in America."

The 1957 Catamount extends its congratulations to these eighteen most deserving students.

1957 was the completion year of Western Carolina College's $650,000 Health and Physical Education Building. On January 30 we proudly dedicated it to our former president, Paul A. Reid. Approximately 3000 people witnessed the dedicatory game between our own Catamounts and the University of North Carolina.

New Gymnasium Dedicated to Paul Apperson Reid

Pictured here is Mr. Reid with his family and friends at a dinner held in his honor. Among the guests were members of the Board of Trustees, politicians from Western North Carolina and our own President and Mrs. W. E. Bird.

Carolina's All-American Lennie Rosenbluth (No. 10) fights for the ball in the dedicatory game with the W.C.C. Catamounts. The Cats held their own against the nation's Number 1 team.

Tom Young presents Western Carolina College's first basketball team, now principals and businessmen.

Mr. Paul Reid expresses his deep appreciation for the honor bestowed on him.

President Bird congratulates former President Reid.

Freshmen and transfers learn about W.C.C. from an "old hand" at welcoming and recruiting new students.

They attend receptions and lyceum programs.

Around the Clock

They get parking tickets.

They go home on the weekends.

They party.

They eat.

They dance.

Catamount Staff

The Catamount Staff of 1957 were a relative new, but eager to learn group, who have earnestly given their creative efforts to present a new and better yearbook. They have contributed numerous hours of hard work, drawing lay-outs, typing copy, and taking pictures of everyday student life throughout the year and up until the last minute of publication deadline.

We the staff hope you the students of Western Carolina College enjoy this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you.

I would like to express my appreciation to the entire staff for their loyalty and cooperation. I sincerely hope that the future Catamount Staffs will be as efficient as the 1957 staff.

WESTERN CAROLINIAN

The Western Carolinian is the student newspaper of Western Carolina College which is strictly an extra-curricular activity for the students which carry out its duty themselves.

Serving as the students' voice, the Western Carolinian carries its constitutional powers to the fullest capacity in trying to obtain better student life on the campus. The Western Carolinian staff combines their talents into one of the best functioning units on the campus, as they search out the news and bring it to the students.

The Student Senate, the highest branch of the Co-operative Student-Faculty Government, includes representatives from the Men's House Government, the Women's House Government, the Day Student Council, and the four classes. In addition to these members the administration sometimes appoints students to complete the ranks; otherwise, all are elected by the student body, and are responsible to them.

As the chief legislative body of the school, the Senate receives all rules and regulations which have a direct bearing on the students. It also supervises all college clubs and elections.

The president of the Senate appoints six senators to serve, along with six faculty members on the Judiciary Committee. This committee hears all student cases of a serious nature, and acts as the supreme judiciary body of the college.

The Women's House of Government Association serves many purposes in its attempt to bring about greater unity and mutual helpfulness among members of the college, and to promote and maintain the highest standards of living. One of its main purposes is to regulate all matters which pertain to the student life of its members and which do not fall under the jurisdiction of some other unit of the Student-Faculty Cooperative Government.

Every woman student living in dormitories at Western Carolina College is a member of the Association and takes an oath of loyalty within one month following registration. They are, therefore, subject to the rules and regulations of the constitution which is planned so that the girls may live a happier and more wholesome life together.

Every year the Association sponsors the Fall Quarter formal dance. This year the Lenoir Rhyne Dance Band provided the music for the dance which was one of the most successful of the year.

Women's House of Government Association Board is composed of the president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer of each dormitory, the Dean of Women, and assistants to the Dean of Women.

MEN'S HOUSE GOVERNMENT

Tommy Williams, President; Frank Plemmons, Vice-President; Melvin Lancaster, Secretary; Joe Mitchell, Treasurer; Jimmy Matthews, Charlie Crawford, Bob Ray, Chief Counselors; Dean of Men Aldmon, Assistant Deans Dr. Morrill, Mr. Hirt.

The purpose of this organization is to regulate all matters which pertain to the student life of its members which do not fall under the jurisdiction of the Senate, Faculty Judiciary Committee, or the College Administration; to bring about a greater unity and mutual helpfulness among the members of the college, and to promote and maintain the highest standard of life to the end, that the prestige of the college and character of its students may be elevated.

All students of the college living in their homes or rooming and boarding in private homes are members of the Day Student Council.

The main purpose of the Council is to promote unity and co-operation of the day students and to improve their social and moral welfare.

The social activities of the year include:

- (a) Participation in all campus activities.
- (b) Sponsor a float in the Homecoming parade.
- (c) Sponsor a team for all intramural sports.
- (d) Sponsor the annual May Day Dance.

BOODLEVILLE

Boodleville could be called a town within the college. It is located right on the campus and plays an important role in the organization of the college. Unlike all other organizations it is headed by a mayor or a vice-mayor. The councilmen from each unit also serve as volunteer firemen. They are as follows: Fred Liner, Ralph Jones, Watson Rankin, Joe Croom, David Price, Bob Mulkey.

Boodleville is doing its part in developing young married couples into citizens of which any community would be proud.

We want to:

Find friends among the faculty and students of our college interested in the same things we are.

Meet and know people who are successfully practicing the profession of home economics.

Promote professional attitudes and interests.

Share with others the value of our profession.

Co-operate with others to attain common purposes.

Seek an understanding of all peoples.

Develop leadership ability.

The Betty Lamp is the symbol of all Home Economics clubs in the United States and its territories. The lamp guided the pioneer homemakers of this country as they performed their tasks. To us today this is a lamp of knowledge, symbolizing the points set up in the constitution of the American Association of Home Economics.

When the lamp was chosen as a symbol of A. H. E. A., one of the members said, "It is the lamp of joy, knowledge, friendship, co-operation, service, and achievement, which cheered the struggling pioneers—the dreamers and doers, who dared not quit, in the game of life but marched onward to serve humanity."¹

The Future Business Leaders of America Chapter at W.C.C., which is affiliated with National and State F.B.L.A. organizations, strives to educate its members by means of field trips and other activities outside the routine of the classroom. This club, composed of only Business Students, undertakes to train its members in sound business attitudes, create interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations for better leaders in the future.

Sponsored by the Club is Student Placement Service, through which several outstanding corporations' representatives interview graduation students and by these means several seniors have been able to attain high paying jobs and further advancement. Swift and Company, Burlington Mills, and R. J. Reynolds and Company are some of the larger companies that come to our campus to interview Business Students. One of our aims is to promote organization of high school clubs.

Field trips promote a more thorough relationship between business persons and the students. To climax the tours an all-day trip is made in the spring. Last year this trip was to Atlanta, touring the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, Sears, Roebuck and Company Mail Order House, and Courts and Company Stock Exchange.

W.C.C. is represented each year by delegates at the State F.B.L.A. Convention. We have at least a 25 per cent increase in membership over last year which makes us one of the largest functioning organizations on the campus. A banquet is held in May for this installation of officers which serves as a last get-together for the year.

An interest in the development of children prompts the activities of the Association for Childhood Education. This international organization is open to all persons who are interested in children and their welfare. Its members include those future teachers of primary and elementary grades who, by expanding their work outside the classroom, are seeking to prepare themselves more thoroughly for that profession. Besides sponsoring educational programs for its members, the student branch has sponsored a radio program presenting the educational needs of the pre-school child, raised funds by selling refreshments in the dormitories, and was represented by a large group at the state convention.

The Baptist Student Union serves as the link between the college students and the church, coordinating the religious activities of the Baptist students. A student becomes a member when he joins any one of several organizations that have representation on the B.S.U. Council, the coordinating body of officers for B.S.U. These unit organizations are first the local Baptist Church, its Sunday School, Training Union, Church Choir, and Young Women's Auxiliary. Through vespers, study groups, forums, participation in programs in the local church and at such places as the county home for the aged, B.S.U. fosters the sort of study and examination of the Christian message and its application to life that would produce spiritual maturity.

The local B.S.U. unit is an integral part of state-wide and denominational-wide fellowships of B.S.U., which provide opportunities of attending conventions and participating in Christian youth life in the broadest relationships. It endeavors to lead students into a vital Christian faith, providing opportunities of spiritual growth, worship, study, participation and fellowship.

1956 Varsity Squad: (Front) Tommy Lewis, Bob Setzer, Fred Scott, Tally Williamson, Charlie Byrd, Ed Vincent, Hubert Edwards. (Second Row) Jack Hendrix, Dennie Williams, Larry Davis, Jerry Hawkins, Doyle Clark, Jack "Rip" Perry, Charlie Cope. (Third Row) Lowell Jennings, Buzzy Enline, Jack Carlton, Keith Howell, Dale Allen, Don Jordan, Alden McCracken. (Fourth Row) Jim Biggerstaff, Jack "Hodge" Stuart, Johnnie Massey, Harold Long, Gerald Lewis, Bobby Watts, Gothard Overcash. (Last Row) Buddie Rector, Cleo Wickham, Mike Carter, Bunky Smith, Buck Thomas and Gordon Howell.

The 1956 football season was an educational one for the players and for new head football coach, Dan Robinson. An all together new brand of football was employed by Coach Robinson to the team and he was introduced to his first college football coaching.

A stout defense was the mainstay of the Catamounts who were outclassed but not outfought. All Conference Co-Captain Bob Setzer and tackle Dennie Williams were a thorn in the flesh of our opponents. The half-backing of Buddie Rector and Co-Captain Tommy Lewis was outstanding for Western Carolina. All-Conference Lewis climaxed his college career by being named to the Mid-Bracket All-American Honorable Mention team along with Sophomore Dennie Williams.

Although there was much to be improved in the Catamount squad this year, a better, harder-fighting, higher-scoring team is anticipated next year. Coach Robinson will be more accustomed to the team, the team will be accustomed to the coach and the product will be a better football team.

Line Coach James Franklin Gudger, Athletic Director Tom Young, and Head Football Coach Dan Robinson were the men behind the whip for the Catamount squad this year.

Co-Captains Tommy Lewis and Bobby Setzer were Western Carolina's wizards placed on the All-Conference round-up. Lewis was also placed on the Mid-Bracker All-American Honorable Mention team.

Halfback Jack Carlton, with a mean scowl on his face, skirts around end for four yards while Elon tacklers grope for a hold.

Leaving a trail of defenders, Halfback Buddy Rector churns up the middle and heads for pay dirt.

Tackle Dennie Williams, one of Western Carolina's greater gridiron assets, was selected on the Mid-Bracket All-American Honorable Mention squad.

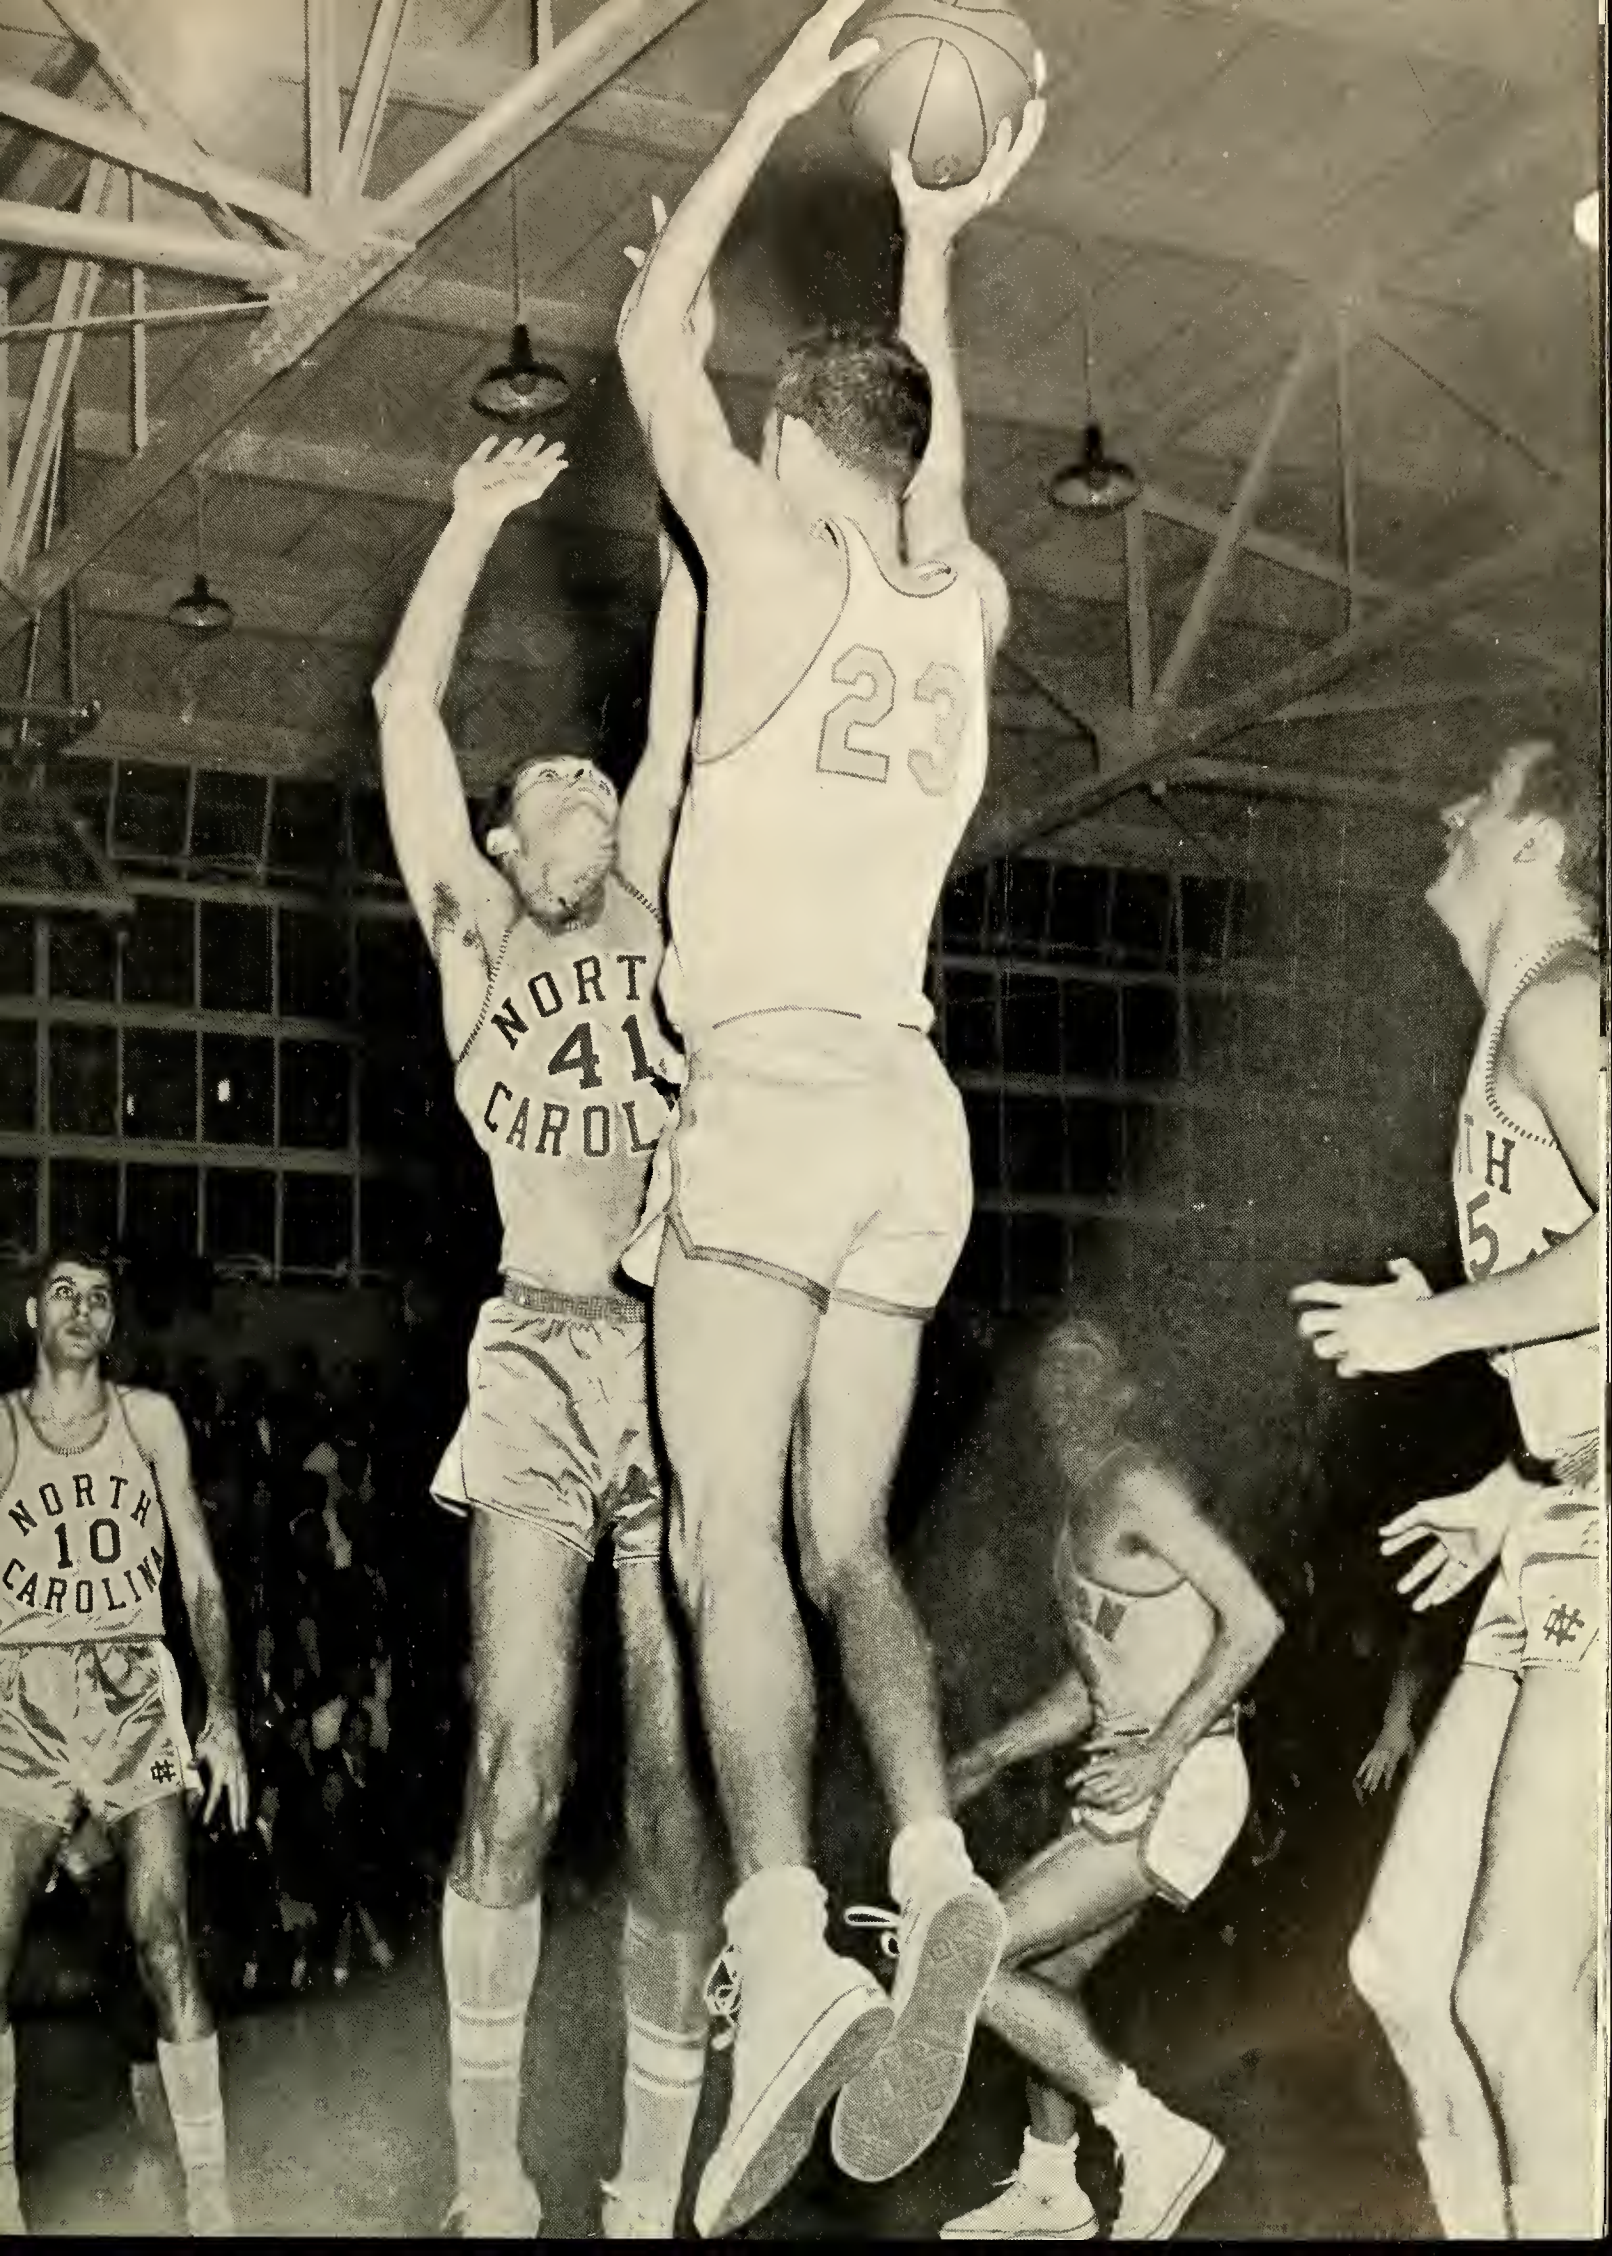

With guidance from the Master Quarterback . . .

. . . plus strategy (or dreaming of twins) . . .

. . . brought results as Buddy Rector charges across the goal line for a Catamount touchdown.

GUDGERMEN HAVE BEST SEASON

Bolstered with four starters from the '55-'56 team and the return of towering center Randall Shields and former All-Conference forward Bob Ray from the Army, Coach Jim Gudger told Western Carolina fans: "This is the greatest team I have ever coached."

And when, after ironing out early season kinks, the Cats out-scored pre-conference favorite Atlantic-Christian 99-96, and trampled the star-studded McCrary Eagles 105-93, students and fans were in complete accord with Coach Gudger.

Perhaps the most important game of the season found the Cats hosting the University of North Carolina for the dedication of Reid Gymnasium. The Tar Heels, with All-American Lennie Rosenbluth and the number one ranking in the nation, awed the Cats by 21 points in the first half. After the intermission, although the final score favored U.N.C. by 77-59, Western Carolina forgot the reputation of the visitors and outscored the finest team in the nation by three points.

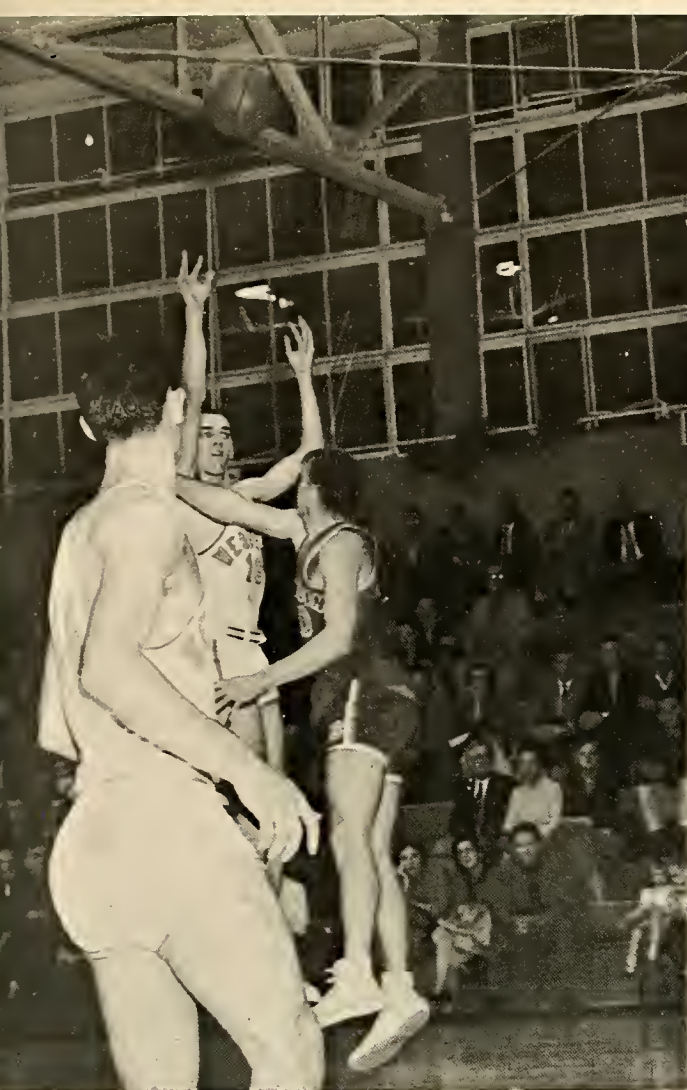

The Catamounts had good height, speed, and scoring ability. Captain Bill Bowen, a jumping jack forward from Manchester, Georgia, personified the entire team with his ability to score from all angles.

If this past season is any indication, Western Carolina is destined for basketball greatness.

Coach Gudger with Co-Captains Bill Bowen and Bob Ray led the Western Carolina Cagers through a successful season.

Varsity Squad: Randall Shields, Bill Wilson, Dave Jones, Charles Jolley, Bill Bowen, Bob Ray, Charles West, Harris Pryor, Tony Migiaolo, Lemond Leigh, Tommy Williams, John Citty, Ronnie Swartzel, George Kirby, Bobby Holcombe, Bobby "Peanut" McNeal.

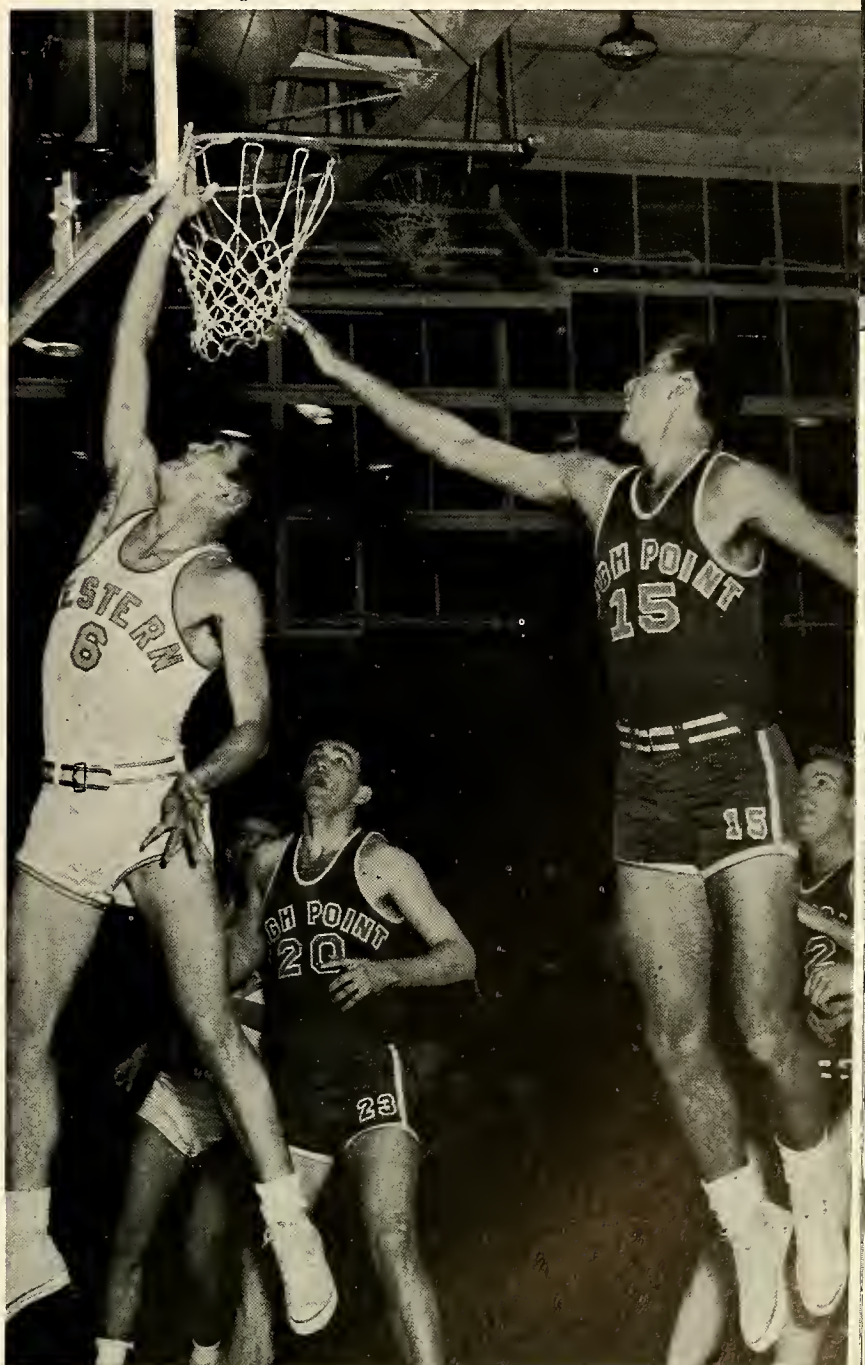

UP IN THE AIR goes Bill Bowen as he executes his famous jump shot.

WHOSE MAN IS THAT says Coach Gudger as he points to a loose High Point player.

MEETING OF THE MINDS shows how Ray, Swartzel, Shields, Pryor and Bowen monopolize rebounds.

"NO SWEAT" gestures Ronnie Swartzel as he stretches and scores for Western Carolina.

WITH EYES on the goal, Harris Pryor leaps to score while Carolina's Pete Brennan tries a futile block.

A MAN AMONG MIDGETS, Randall Shields has no need of jumping.

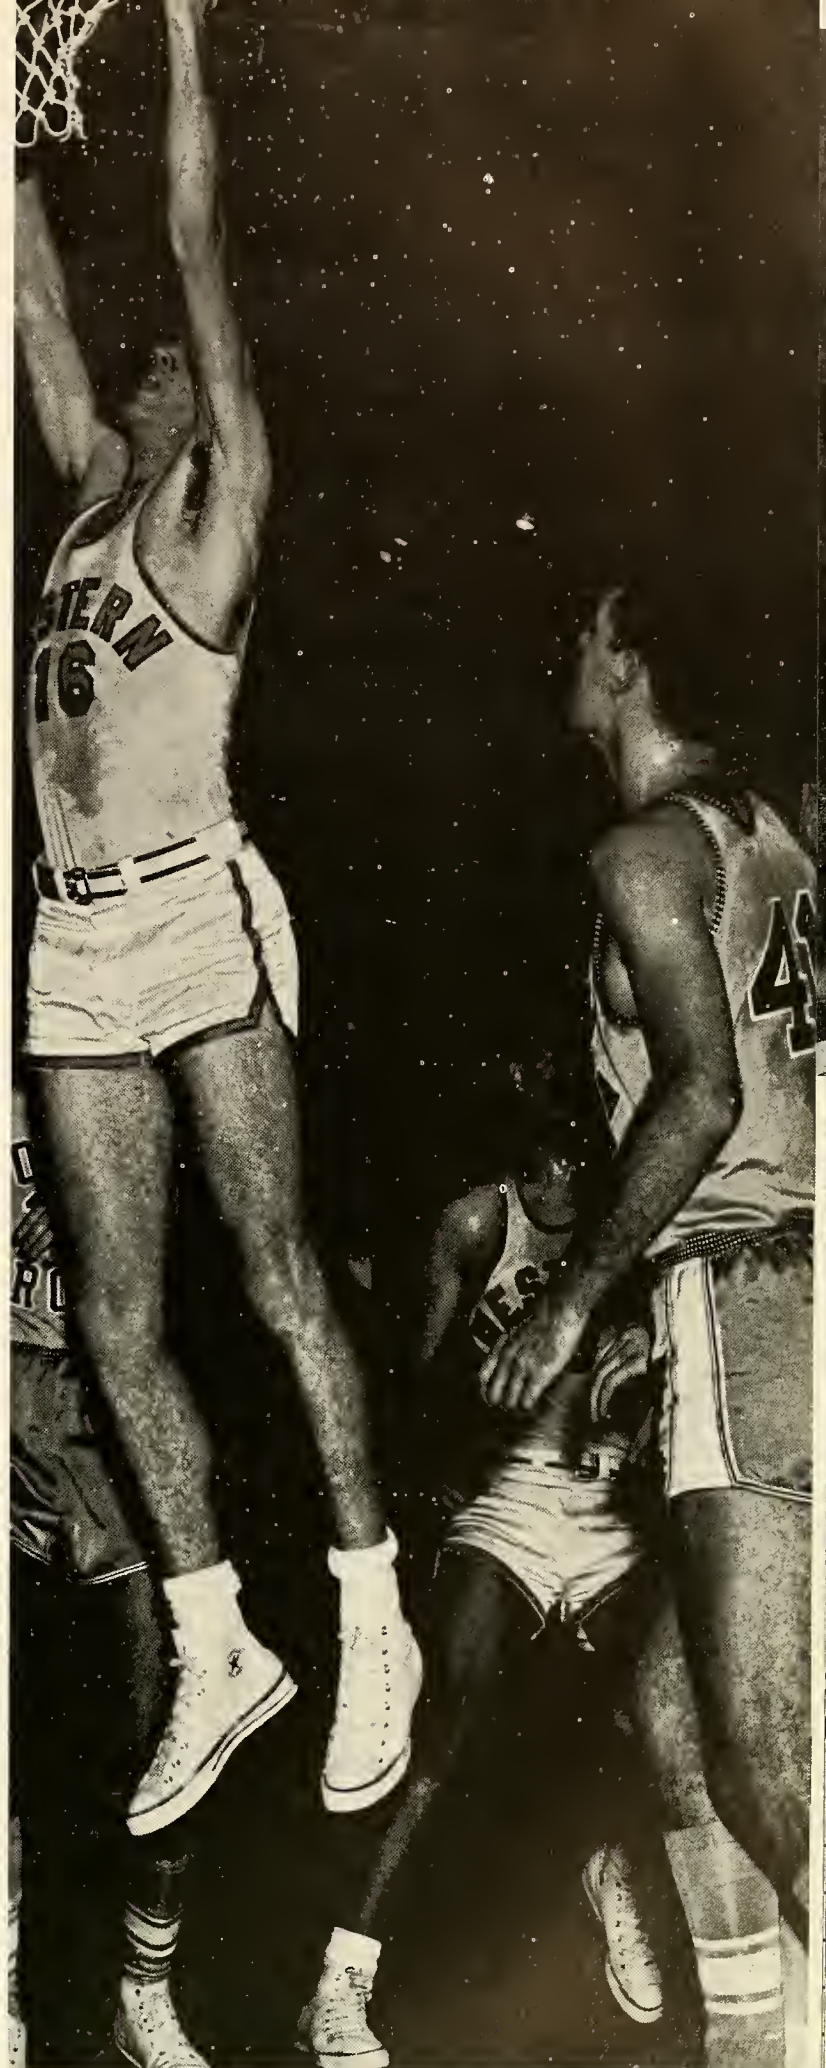

THE UPSTRETCHED ARMS of North Carolina's Joe Quigg and W.C.C.'s Randall Shields strive to get possession of the ball.

TOMMY WILLIAMS who set a free throw record last year exhibits his new shooting form.

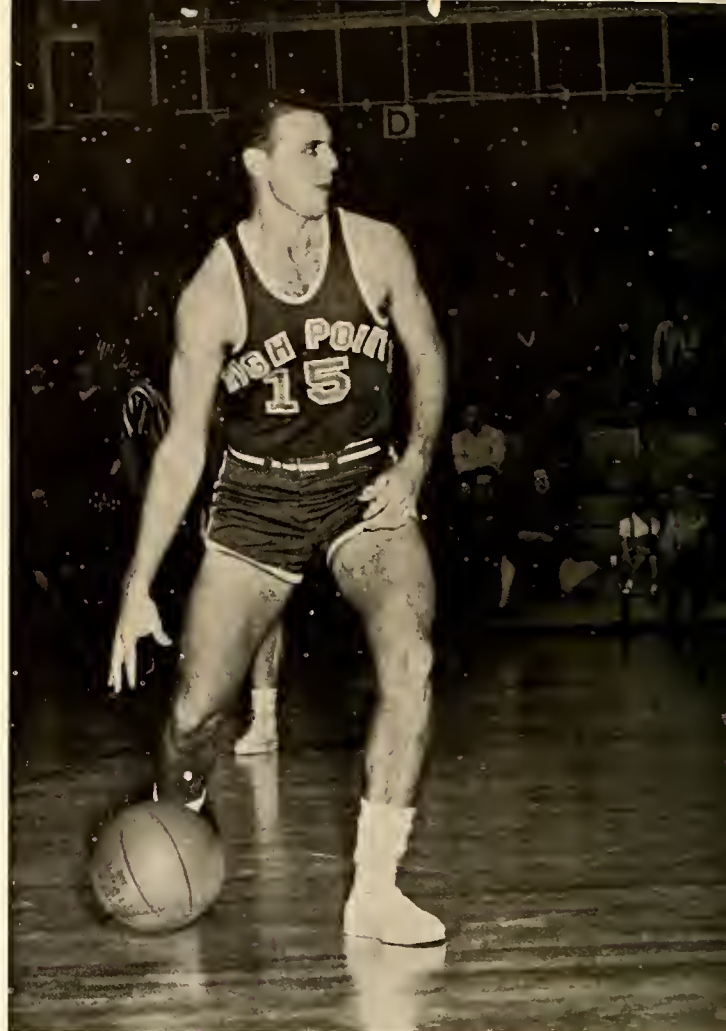

A LAY UP by Harris Pryor shows North Carolina's All-American Lennie Rosenbluth's guarding technique.

A SURE SCORE is made by Bill Bowen as he places the ball in the net.

A tense moment captured on Dave Jones' free throw attempt as anxious High Point players ready to recover ball.

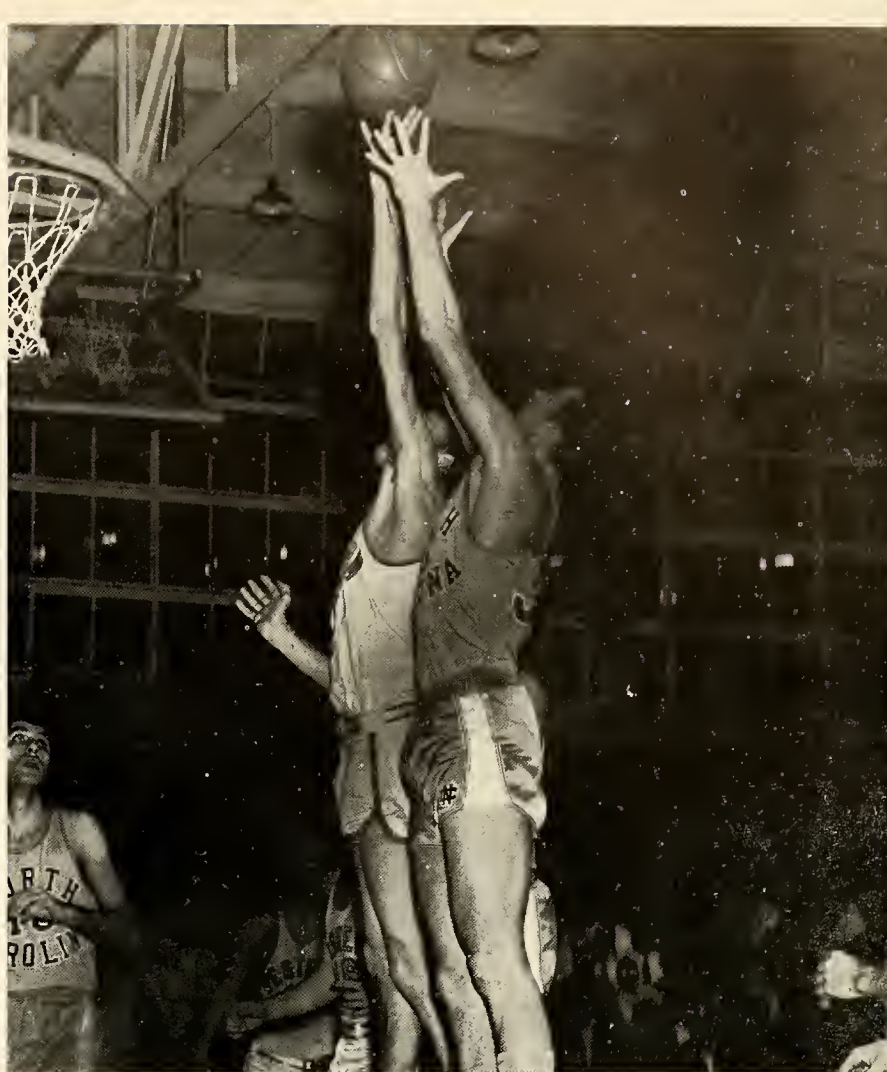

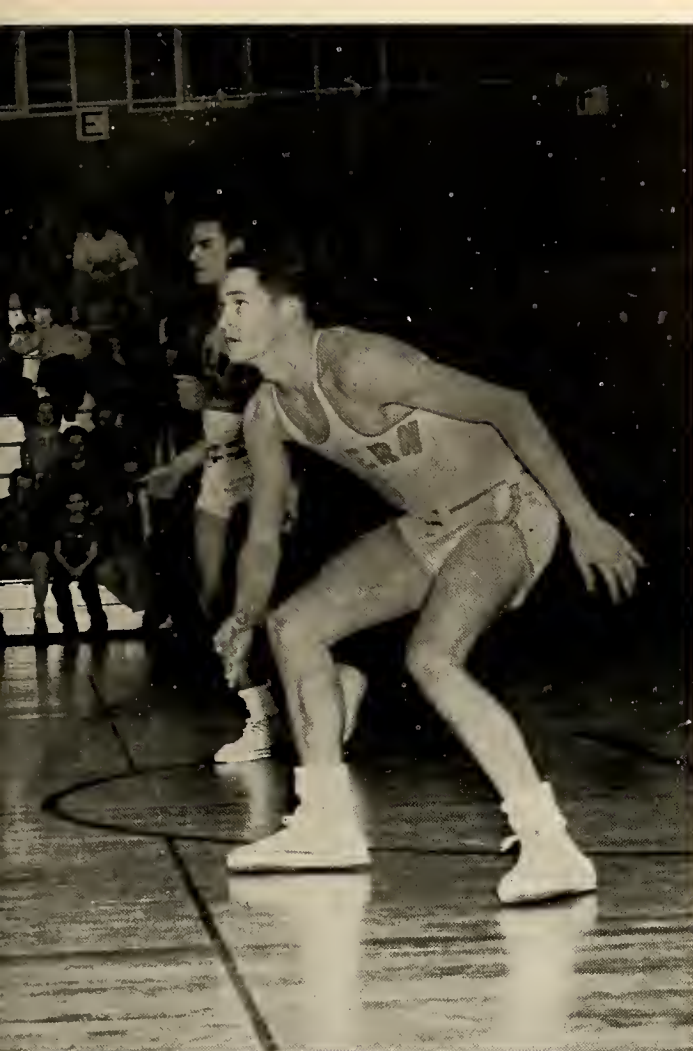

Ronnie Swartzel guarding High Point's Huegile shows defensive style used effectively throughout campaign.

Set it up encourages Bobby Holcombe and Coach Gudger in an effort to settle offensive play.

The Name Doesn't Matter

Some people say we should get a new name for it! But whether we call it free enterprise, American Way of Life, or Profit-and-Loss System, the name doesn't matter as long as we understand that it means hope, decency, courage, dignity and education.

Change the name if you like, but be ever alert against those who would change or destroy the meaning.
